'Urinetown' | Today through Sunday

The popular Theatre in the Park summer theater series presents a deliciously disgusting satire about what happens when the world's water dries up. A shortage of water has made a conglomerate out of water company Urine Good Company, which sends folks to a place called Urinetown if they refuse to pay a fee to pee. Shows begin at 8:30 p.m. at Shawnee Mission Park in Shawnee, with gates opening an hour earlier. Adult tickets are $8, except on Thursdays, when they're 20 percent off. Details at theatreinthepark.org.

COLLECTING FOR OTHERS

JIM BARCUS | THE KANSAS CITY STAR

Bob Hamilton Plumbing + Heating + A/C + Rooter is sponsoring the musical "Urinetown" at The Theatre in the Park. In collaboration with Giving the Basics, the business is spearheading a toilet paper drive. Theater patrons were asked to bring a four-pack of toilet paper to be distributed in the Kansas City metro area for people that are in need of basic hygiene products.
