Fair Lady (2003). Last year she costumed Hello, Dolly! at TIP and is excited to work with Kevin Bogan for the first time. She is resident costumer for Olathe East High School and MidAmerica Nazarene University, and has costumed for Leawood Stage Company, The White Theatre, MTKC and many others. Much love to my hubby, Jim.

Ali Breckinridge (Scenic Designer) is excited to return to TIP for her second summer, following designs for Steel Magnolias and Sister Act. An Experiential Designer designing playgrounds by day with ABcreative Inc., she continues to design for theatre across the United States in her free time. Recent design credits include Festival 56, Providence College, and Maples Repertory Theatre. She thanks her family and friends for their support as she pursues new opportunities in the arts.

Frank Gentile (Props Designer) works in Props / Scenic Design / Construction and Gun wrangler (armorer) and regularly assists local theatrical productions in community theater and in schools. Frank loves the challenge of creating illusions and special effects for people and has fun along the way. When not in local theater he is on staff full time as a Churchwide Production Manager, in Tech Arts for Church of the Resurrection guiding and serving over 100 volunteers and a handful of staff. Favorite artist: Michelangelo.

Chuck Harper (Stage Manager) This is Chuck's fourth time back stage at TIP and couldn't be more thrilled to be the Stage Manager for My Fair Lady. Past productions include Chitty Chitty Bang Bang 2019 (remote-control car operator), Newsies 2021 (ASM), and White Christmas 2024 (ASM). What makes this production special is working with his husband, Brian Larios (Henry Higgins). LNS and break a leg, Brian!

John Hollan (Hair & Makeup Designer)

While formal training has placed him on stages as an actor, singer, or conductor, John's guilty pleasure for more than a decade happens backstage, styling productions for live theatre. A self-taught designer, he finds
